Dear friends of Xoops:

It's time to begin formal work in the documentation process, so this item has a double purpose:

1) To share with the community a draft of the Documentation Roadmap asking for comments. Please read the document and take into account it's only a draft.

2) To ask from the community help. The Xoops Documentation Team has at the moment 4 members, and we need some more, as you will no doubt see when you read our aspirations. If you feel you can help, please contact me.

Any constructive comment will be welcome. Any destructive comment will be ignored.

Cheers.
