I'm pleased to announce the launch of <http://www.fantasyref.com>, a fantasy sports site featuring football, baseball, basketball, racing, hockey, fantasy leagues and more. Fantasyref.com is part of the <http://www.FantasyAsylum.com> group of companies.

This was a complete switch from their previous CMS(E-xoops), to the new Xoops 2.0.5 branch. It features news, articles and forum discussions related to fantasy sports. Custom blocks were designed for the homepage to give FantasyRef a unique appearance from the standard Xoops look.
