Beatlessweden.com is born!

We are pleased to announce the birth of Beatlessweden.com. The site is dedicated to all people in Sweden (and of course outside Sweden as well) that enjoy the Beatles era. We believe that Beatles had so much more to give us than just good records. We strongly believe that they where the great grandparents of rock & roll, fostering the music industry to accept new music genres and new musicians with love.

I made some evaluations between a few systems like Xoops, but found out that there where no other system like Xoops! It just works great!

Please visit us and I hope you will enjoy your stay!
