A small module has been born on Unknown Team.

It is about a gallery of logos!

But it is what so?

It is the small script enfaite an adaptation what I made(did) so that the other sites can inserted their logos posted(shown) during X a minutes and this clocking(pointing, sticking) towards the site of logos, Then this(they) say logo is registered(recorded) in the gallery of Logos!

Yes it is not clear but good I find that nice!!

excuse for my english look here Inconnue pub
