Since its launch three months ago, Xoops-Tips.com has enjoyed a bit of success. We are averaging over 1,000 unique visitors a month. We hope that our visitors have benefited from our contents.

We are calling for tips from the community. If you are posting a tip in the Xoops forums, please also consider posting it on our site, either registering with us to post or sending it through the feedback form. Xoops forums offer vast wealth of information on tips and tricks, but finding them is bit of tricky. We are hoping to build Xoops-Tips.com as a TIPS repository for easy searching. Please join us and look forward to seeing you in our site.

Thanks to Solo71 (Wolffactory) for contributions to the site.

Cheers,
