After noticing the substantial number of Church/Christian-related websites now powered by Xoops, we have decided to open XoopsHQas a resource for Church/Christian webmasters, as a place to meet, share experiences and make suggestions for the best modules and themes for Christian sites.

Your friendly admins are shaxs, who kindly donated the domain name and hosting, and Bassman. However we need yourinput to make the site a success.

This is not meant to be a replacement for the wonderful xops.org site, more like a meeting place for like-minded webmasters to get together.
