Installation Problem - News

NEWS_PDF_AUTHOR: onokazu

NEWS_PDF_DATE: 2002/1/4 20:34:30

The most of the problems we receive are due to database password checking in our install script and in our core main file. This seems to be a problem for those who do not set DB passwords on a local database server.

We are aware of this bug, and are working for a new install script. But we recommend a database password be set as a good habit even when you are installing on your local server.

The most of the problems we receive are due to database password checking in our install script and in our core main file. This seems to be a problem for those who do not set DB passwords on a local database server.

We are aware of this bug, and are working for a new install script. But we recommend a database password be set as a good habit even when you are installing on your local server. 😊