I'm happy to announce the opening of <http://foglio.de> which will be the place of my small business for some services to local german clients. Moduels used on this page are : contact, tinycontent (clones), smartpartner, news (and if available ... netquerry 😊)

With the help of some partners we want to fit the needs of small commercials here. Give theme some information how easy xoops can be used for small content but actual dynamic pages, and help to setup eg.

hope you like it!
