After literally about 18 months of trying to find a decent CMS solution to overhaul my old website Destroy-All-Monsters.com, I finally stumbled upon XOOPS. I'm happy to say that after 5 months of hard work, we've finally launched under a new title and URL: <http://www.yellow-menace.com>! If you dig Asian Pop Culture (anime, movies, music, etc.) please stop by and have a look. I think Xoops has made a huge impact on the useability of our site, and am looking forward to taking advantage of all it's features. Thanks!
