This is just a short announcement to hail the arrival of:

http://www.phpfreelancer.org

The site is also known ashttp://www.phpnukefreelance.com and caters for all things PHP.

If anyone wants help with a website, project, documentation, graphics etc. then sign up today as a webmaster (provider).

Looking to earn some extra cash as a php programmer then sign up today and start looking straight away.

Now for the good bit - it's absolutely free to sign up and they take absolutely ZERO Commissions. There is no hidden catch - just a completely free site.

That's right. Nothing, not a penny!

So head over tohttp://www.phpfreelancer.org today and post your project (as a webmaster) or sign up for freelance work as a PHP Programmer.

You have absolutely nothing to lose.

The site has just opened today (11th October).

Good Luck!
