

Cut your bandwidth bill by 75% using HTTP compression - News

NEWS_PDF_AUTHOR: brash

NEWS_PDF_DATE: 2005/10/17 6:50:00

IT Headquarters is pleased to present this article on enabling IIS 6 native HTTP compression for PHP. This how-to guide contains step by step instructions on how to enable native IIS 6 HTTP compression that will slash your bandwidth bill, and significantly increase end user experience due to greatly reduced site loading times. In testing IIS 6 native compression on a test site a massive 78% compression of all compressible material was achieved! A valuable read if you are using hosted web services, and are finding your monthly bandwidth bill a thorn in your side.

IT Headquarters is pleased to present this article on enabling IIS 6 native HTTP compression for PHP. This how-to guide contains step by step instructions on how to enable native IIS 6 HTTP compression that will slash your bandwidth bill, and significantly increase end user experience due to greatly reduced site loading times. In testing IIS 6 native compression on a test site a massive 78% compression of all compressible material was achieved! A valuable read if you are using hosted web services, and are finding your monthly bandwidth bill a thorn in your side.