On XOOPS Factory we finished the period of voting for the month september. BIG thanks to all who have found some time to look at the nominations, to fill in the voting form, helped and participated.

This month there were 128 votings and many comments. Some said that there were too many nominations, which was too hard to look at and visit all. In future we will limit the nominations to a number of 10 to 15. There are no restrictions to nominate a site, so you can nominate a site for each month. We will take care that each submission will take part at least once.

And ... the winner is ... viapontedinona.it
