Game Overdrive, located at <http://www.game-overdrive.com>, is a gaming media company founded in April 2005 to provide accurate, unbiased content to its visitors free of charge.

XOOPS has been there the entire length of the way, allowing us to easily customise the CMS quickly and efficiently, while adding over 5 gigabytes of data. It allows a centralized system for us to quickly add information, updates, and articles in a convenient fashion.
