

GhettoNET Portal - YAXS

Being a poor college student, I decided to create a web portal with Xoops and incorporate Google AdSense to try and make a little (probably very little) extra money for school. Thanks to Xoops it was fairly easy and doesn't look too bad (I think).

I used the movie times, cartoons, weblinks, and cafepress modules. I also tried to keep it simple, a lot of the big portals seem cluttered and complicated to when all I want to do is catch some quick news.

I hope people like it and find it useful, and maybe (probably not) make a few dollars for books.
