Xoops.net is pleased to offer the Xoops community a method of securing the right people for the job. Our Jobs ads section for registered users of the site will give you access to a world of talent and opportunity.

Simple line adverts can be placed free of charge for those seeking work. Organisations and individuals seeking help directly for themselves may also place free adverts. Agencies and those paid on commission to find talent will have to pay a small fee to place an advert. Please contact the site administrator for details.
