One year after starting the XOOPS Site of the Month contest we now have 12 winner. We have seen many different examples of different XOOPS usage in the last year. I'll love to see the next 12 winner and more great layout and content examples.

This month winner is lebuccaneer.com.

A great example of XOOPS usage which looks different to xoops standard layout. Read comments and more about the contest on xoopsfactory.

Congratulation to the winner! and thanks to all who helped me out on this and to those who took some minutes to look at the nominated sites and submitted a voting. That's for sure a good feedback for the webmaster of the nominated sites.
