XOOPS would like to announce the opening of "XOOPS Hacks" forums. These forums are being put up as a collaboration area for XOOPS hackers and developers to share code and ideas and open to all registered XOOPS.org users. Who knows, maybe some of the code will find it's way into the core with the dev team will be sinffing around. 😊

Caveat: Please be advised that any code that you implement from these forums could break your site and we only recommend that experienced PHP/XOOPS hackers attempt these modifications.

When submitting hacks, please be as clear as possible about what the hack is for.

Thanks,
XOOPS Team
