Hello all!

I have just rewritten and re-released my eirenicon l.l.c. site. With this release, I have tried to innovate the theme layout with the most extensive use of opacity and wireframe capabilities I am capable of implementing.

Please take a look at this site and let me know what you think of it. 😊 The site is located at:
<http://eirenicon.org>

I am currently working on making a community template of this theme"master". I will release it on the eirenicon site in the next week (I hope!).

Regards,
