Cars_K theme is a 2 and 1/2 columns, and i say that because the right column represents some big square buttons which can be hidden by pressing the switch above them, blank images have been added for personalization and also the package includes 2 extra style.css and also an extra theme.html.

For few "at hand" modifications, consult the "read me" file contained in the package

Theme was tested in IE6; IE7 and Firefox 2.0.0.2 ==> XOOPS 2.0.14 &XOOPS 2.0.16
