Report

Actually there was not that much we could do before having some more details about the future organisation of xoops.org. Until now we had some conversation via IM to get in contact.
At the beginning there was some confusion regarding the design Team on Topic official and community driven. So at first, the thoughts and ideas were shared. Tasks of our team have been made clear. Ideas for a new xoops.org were discussed.

Things needed

1. a working place, forum with member access
2. how to submit content, files, ...
