Just to let you know that PacktPub have opened up nominations today for the 2007 Open Source CMS Award. They will close at the end of August, so there is some time to get some momentum together for people to nominate XOOPS.

As with last year's Award, the 5 CMS's with the most nominations in each category will go through to the final judging stage. XOOPS qualifies to enter the Overall and best PHP categories, so there is a lot at stake this year!

I've attached a press release, which details the Award as well as an image, which you are welcome to use to encourage votes. You can also use the following URL, which will enable people to click straight through to our site to nominate XOOPS:

- Open Source Content Management System Award
- Best PHP Open Source Content Management System
