Freeform Solutions is looking for a Junior Web Developer to join our team.

If you are a XOOPS expert in Toronto or Ottawa, Canada, please check out our job posting here:

<http://www.freeformsolutions.ca/en/careers/keepthetrainsrunning.html>

Deadline is August 3, 2007.

Freeform Solutions is a not-for-profit organization with a mission to help other not-for-profits use technology to meet their goals. We handle a variety of IT consulting tasks with several not-for-profits in Canada, not all of it XOOPS-related. This is an entry level opportunity for a dedicated individual to learn a lot about IT, the web, and building a civil society.
