We announce the first beta version of the MultiSite Project for Xoops (yes... the famous hack MultiX).

This is the 2.0.17 xoops version modified to allow multiple sites in one root directory, with the possibility to share tables, groups, sessions and more. Also you can use some configurations files that will help you to administer some functionality aspects of each site.

The link to the project in sourceforge is <http://sourceforge.net/projects/multixoops/>. You can download from here.

We hope Multix would be helpfull for you and the feedback help Multix to grow and be better!!
