Themecentral.com closes the theme repository for PHPNuke, PostNuke and also XOOPS. So at the end of the month no free themes will be available there, except these themes, which were built by the TC team.

After a long discussion within the TC team we have setup a roadmap for the "NEW TC".

If you want to see what new features are coming, what's not changing and what TC can do for you in the future go on reading at themecentral.com.
