Hello,

A problem has been discovered in the article.php page, so I have released an update of the Xoops News module in a 1.61 version.

The previous article was always pointing to the first article and not to the previous article.

Also, TCPDF was updated to its last version.

There were no changes in the translations.

You can download the module to its homepage :

Don't forget to use our forums to report any problem.

Best regards,
