CMSWire has published a great article about XOOPS. I love this quote:

Quote:

With two prestigious recognitions in less than 6 months, XOOPS is flexing its muscle as a powerful, PHP based open source Web CMS.

Look for more big things from XOOPS throughout 2009. Who knows, maybe that finalist spot in PacktPub.com's contest will become a winning spot this year.

It's definitely great to see that the press is finally taking notice of XOOPS.
