- Do you want to earn an extra $30 - $100+?
- Would you like to be credited on a company's website for your creation?

Xtr3me Technologies is looking for a theme developer(s) to work closely with the webmaster (xtr3master@xtr3.com) in developing an original theme for our website, which will be used for e-commerce and to also inform visitors about the company.

We currently have a couple logos in .psd format, and would be able to supply the developer with any graphics needed for production of the website. If you think you have what it takes*, and are interested in helping establish a small computer business that builds custom computers and case mods. Please contact me at xtr3master@xtr3.com . You can also contact me via msn messenger (xtr3master@hotmail.com, aol instant messenger (xtr3master), yahoo messenger (xtr3master), or ICQ (169326444).

*Experienced Xoops Theme developer(s) preferred, please include any experience you have with Xoops and/or other CMS...including examples of your work. Experience with php and modules a plus, especially "freecontent" or any related mod.
