Today, I've released 2 brand new XOOPS themes, which are called "BlueWood" and XOOPS_Tropical.

Here is a screenshot of both of them:

If you want to visit a demo of these themes, you can visit our new demo site on <http://www.nightquest.me/demo/xoops>.

You can download both of these themes on our website: <http://www.nightquest.me/downloads/xoops> (you will have to visit our site, because our scripts don't allow direct linking).

These two themes have been created by using Artisteer and have been ported to XOOPS afterwards. I am currently writing a tutorial about how to accomplish this and I should be able to port it later this week (after all of my birthday stuff is done).

Have a nice day and I hope you'll like these themes,

Kevin
