ninja training blends historical perspectives and creative, up-to-date applications. The ninjutsu combat system is based on natural body motion and knowledge of the human body's weak points.

The basic study curriculum includes training in the following areas, these areas are graded internally:

- * Ninpo Taijutsu - Ninjutsu's unarmed combat, which includes junan taiso (body flexibility), taihenjutsu (roll, leaps and evasions), dakentaijutsu (strikes, kicks and blocking) and jutaijutsu (grappling, throwing and choking).
- * Buki Training - Instruction in weaponry including bojutsu (stickfighting), kenjutsu (sword and knife), sojutsu (spearfighting), juttejutsu (truncheon), kusarigama (sickle and chain) and hojojutsu (rope arresting techniques).
- * Shinobi Iri - Methods of dealing with difficult situations.
- * Seishin Teki Kyoho - Meditation and methods for developing a mental balance.

Ninjutsu epitomizes the fullest concept of self-protection through martial training. The way of the ninja is the way of enduring, surviving and prevailing over all that would destroy one.
