where you will also find a podcast about XOOPS.

Each month, a project is chosen from the many thousands on <http://www.SourceForge.net> to be a Project of the Month. This time it is XOOPS:

You can see past winners here:

As you can see, XOOPS is in a very fine company there.

We're very proud of this recognition, and are looking forward to attracting more users, more developers, and having more fun!

Viva XOOPS! 🏆
